

NICK EVANS

FRONT END WEB DEVELOPER

WHO I AM

Originating from Vancouver, I have moved to the east coast to pursue a career in web development. As a former business owner and tour guide, I bring a diverse skill set to the job, and I believe in integrating my interpersonal skills with my technical expertise to develop functional, innovative, and responsive web applications.

CONTACT

nickevansmedia.com

evans2nick@gmail.com

@nickevansmedia

linkedin.com/in/nevans3/

SKILLS

WHAT I'VE STUDIED

2017

Front End Web Development

HackerYou College of Technology

An immersive coding bootcamp focusing on front end web development languages and frameworks such as

2015

B.A in Economics

Simon Fraser University

Used regression analysis and excel spreadsheets to analyze data and produce economic reports. Completed an exchange year in Puebla, México studying Spanish

WHERE I'VE WORKED

2016

Landsea Tours & Adventures

Tour Guide

Lead groups of up to 30 people on fun and adventurous tours throughout Vancouver by providing interesting and engaging commentary.

2012

Student Works Painting

Franchisee

Successfully hired and managed a team of five employees. Cold called and negotiated contracts with clients to generate $26,000 in revenue. Project managed multiple contracts at once.

2016

Tri-Cities Youth Basketball Association

Referee

Referee competitive basketball for grade 7 - 12 youth. Demonstrated the ability to work well in a high pressure, fast paced environment while maintaining composure and focus.